

ServeMinnesota

The power of AmeriCorps. The power of you.

Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity & Project for Pride in Living AmeriCorps Program

Betsy Reller, Habitat for Humanity
612-305-7165

betsy.reller@tchabitat.org

www.tchabitat.org/ameri-corps

Laura Bohlen, Project for Pride Living
612-455-5108

laura.bohlen@ppl-inc.org

www.ppl-inc.org

In a unique partnership between Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity and Project for Pride in Living (PPL), members build, rehab, and repair homes in partnership with community volunteers and low-income families in the Twin Cities. AmeriCorps members also coordinate after-school youth programs and engage in community organizing.

Essential qualifications to participate in Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity:

- Volunteer experience
- Teaching experience

Essential qualifications to participate in Project for Pride in Living:

- Prefer a college degree and/or experience in working with youth.

Top reasons that members like serving in Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity:

- Working with community volunteers
- Working alongside home buying families
- Getting to learn home construction and about affordable housing

Top reasons that members like serving in Project for Pride in Living:

- Gaining experience in a field of interest
- Learning new skills
- Being part of a team that makes a difference
- Serving lower income kids and families